

Dispatch, Set 1 Test Review Sheet

VOCABULARY:

- copious, preeminent, genre, plot elements

AFFIXES:

- ambi, aud, jus, just, jur, jud, bio, graph,

G.U.M.S. Grammar Usage Mechanics Spelling

- parts of speech:
https://www.butte.edu/departments/cas/tipsheets/grammar/parts\_of\_speech.html
- complete subjects-predicates, simple subjects-predicates, linking verbs, action verbs, subject-verb agreement
- Correct punctuation for book titles, songs, articles and short stories.
- Write in present tense when writing about literature.
- Only need to mention author's name once when citing t.e.. This may be in a sentence or in the parentheses. The only rule is to make sure the author is clear to your audience.

WRITING:

- 6+1 traits of writing: <http://educationnorthwest.org/traits/trait-definitions>
- engaging leads

ANALYSIS:

- A.C.C.E. strategy
- tone

SPEAKING BASICS

***Make sure you can sign into Jupiter. This will be a Juno test.