

Assignment 1: Banned Book Expository Report

Part 1: Create a Google Doc with team members. Pages one to two should be a collection of notes for the following:

--brief plot synopsis

--genre

--reasons for challenging/banning

--places (cities/states) and years of challenges

Must include websites used to collect evidence

*Each person should collect notes in different colors. Identify who is writing what in a key at the top.

*Notes only. Avoid plagiarism by only bulleting info in your own words.

Part 2: The Report

On Friday, after deciding on reading goals and literature circle jobs, write a shared, multi-paragraph expository report.

Requirements:

*Prompt: Why has the book been challenged or banned and what conclusions can be drawn about censorship considering patterns, trends, and change over time.

*Include an interesting title and engaging hook.

*Include title, author, and various reasons for challenges.

*Include places and times book has been challenged; then draw conclusions about challenges and censors based on that information.

*No conclusions needed.

*Add an image of the novel. Be sure to format to make the report polished in appearance.

*Include an additional page with the Bibliography, citing ANY SOURCES USED TO COLLECT INFORMATION.
