

List three character traits for Melinda.

Other Characters important to this marking period:

Conflicts that appear in the First Marking Period:

List the important events in marking period 1:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.

Topics/themes addressed in Marking Period 1:

Setting

Provide an important quotation to marking period 1 that really stood out for you.

Speak* Bullets
First Marking Period

Highlighting/annotate/engage:

- Vocabulary--Highlight words you "sort of know it," or "don't know it at all."--in the margin, guess at the meaning! NO DICTIONARY!
- Significant text throughout--consider why that piece matters: characterization, plot development, establishment of setting or mood, development of a theme, use of literary device (AIM FOR AT LEAST FIVE!)
- Note questions, emphasize lines, interact with the text
- After reading the chapter, go back to the title and explore its significance.